

Appendices

I. Workshop in Nanjing, China (June 25, 2010)

II. Workshop in Nanjing, China (September 24, 2010)

III. Workshop in Tokyo, Japan (December 10, 2010)

IV. Workshop in Suwa, Japan (December 12, 2010)

V. Documents for the Community Roundtable Meetings in Yixing

1. Questionnaire for Public Meeting (November 18, 2010)
2. Questionnaire for Roundtable Meeting (January 15, 2011)

I. Workshop in Nanjing, China (June 25, 2010)

Workshop on Stakeholder Involvement in Water Environment Conservation in the Tai Lake Basin

Date: June 25, 2010

Place: School of the Environment, Nanjing University

Presentations:

Issues and Perspectives for Institutional Arrangements to Promote Participatory Governance in the Tai Lake Basin, China

Kenji Otsuka, Institute of Developing Economies

Comment and Discussion:

Policy Instruments and Governance for the Water Environment

Kaori Fujita, Kinki University

Public Participation for Restoring Tai Lake

Yayoi Isono, Tokyo Keizai University

How to Push the CRMs More Effectively

Junjie Ge, School of the Environment, Nanjing University

Participants:

Jun Bi, Professor, Dean of School of the Environment, Nanjing University

Junjie Ge, Lecturer, School of the Environment, Nanjing University

Shi Wang, Senior Assistant Researcher, School of the Environment, Nanjing University

Yayoi Isono, Professor, Tokyo Keizai University

Kaori Fujita, Professor, Kinki University

Kenji Otsuka, Senior Research Fellow, Institute of Developing Economies

II. Workshop in Nanjing, China (September 24, 2010)

Workshop on Environmental Information Disclosure and Public Participation

Date: September 24, 2010

Place: Jingli Hotel, Nanjing

Presentations:

How to Promote Community Environment Roundtable Meetings

Junjie Ge, School of the Environment, Nanjing University

Promotion of Stakeholder Involvement and Cooperation: A Perspective and Some Suggestions for Water Environment Conservation the Tai Lake Basin

Kenji Otsuka, Senior Research Fellow, Institute of Developing Economies

Discussants:

Zhen He, Deputy Director of Policy and Law, Jiangsu Environmental Protection Bureau

Qingjie Luo, Director of Control and Planning, Taihu Office, Wuxi Municipal Government, Jiangsu Province

Yuequn Jiang, Deputy Director of Environmental Protection, Yixing Economic Development Zone, Jiangsu Province

Ming Wang, Deputy Director of Security and Supervision, Yixing Economic Development Zone, Jiangsu Province

Guomin Tang, Communist Party Secretary of Huayu Village, Yixing, Jiangsu Province

Jun Bi, Professor, Dean of School of the Environment, Nanjing University

Junjie Ge, Lecturer, School of the Environment, Nanjing University

Laijuan Shan, Research Assistant, School of the Environment, Nanjing University

Kenji Otsuka, Senior Research Fellow, Institute of Developing Economies

Nanae Yamada, Research Fellow, Institute of Developing Economies

III. Workshop in Tokyo, Japan (December 10, 2010)

Workshop on Building New Clean Water Networks in China: Challenges and Opportunities for Protecting Lake Tai

Project sponsored by the Woodrow Wilson Center's China Environment Forum, the Institute of Developing Economies, and Nanjing University's Center for Environmental Management and Policy

Made possible by a grant from the Center for Global Partnership/Japan Foundation

Date: December 10, 2010

Place: ABC conference room, 5th floor, JETRO

Languages: English, Japanese, and Chinese

Part 1: Public Seminar

10:00-10:10 Welcoming Remarks

Kenji Otsuka (IDE) and Jennifer Turner (CEF)

10:10-11:50 Keynote Lectures

These presentations will highlight how Japan, China, and the United States have faced similar challenges in promoting better lake protection.

Chair: Motoyuki Mizuochi (National Institute for Environmental Studies, Japan)

Lake Basin Governance and International Cooperation: Experiences in the Lake Biwa-Yodo River Basin, Japan

Masahisa Nakamura (Shiga University, Japan)

Water Protection and Stakeholder Participation in China: Challenges in the Lake Tai Basin

Shi Wang (Nanjing University, China)

The Water Compact in the Great Lakes Basin: Lessons for China

Noah Hall (Wayne State University, US)

11:50-12:20 Discussion

Chairs: Kenji Otsuka and Jennifer Turner

12:20-12:30 Concluding Remarks for Morning Session

Kenji Otsuka

Part 2: Experts Meeting

The afternoon panels with short presentation aim to stimulate discussions highlighting China's water governance challenges and possible lessons from the United States and Japan. These solutions-focused discussions aim to help inform projects carried out by Nanjing University in Lake Tai and also to provide insights for an upcoming policy brief produced by the workshop sponsors.

13:30-15:00 Panel Discussion 1

Bringing More to the Table: Partnerships Linking Community, Business, and Government to Better Protect Water Resources

Chair: Kaori Fujita (Kinki University, Japan)

Panelists: Yuequn Jiang (Yixing Economic Development Zone, China), Shi Wang (Nanjing University) to read a statement from Guomin Tang (Communist Party Secretary of Huayu Village, Yixing), Osamu Fujiki (Japan Institute of Wastewater Engineering Technology) , and Linda Sheehan (California Coastkeeper Alliance)

15:00-15:15 Tea and Coffee Break

15:15-16:45 Panel Discussion 2

Roles of NGOs in Strengthening Water Governance — Insights from Japan and China

Chair: Yayoi Isono (Tokyo Keizai University, Japan)

Panelists: Liping Ran (Green Camel Bell, China), Junzhi Wang (Jiangsu Friends of Nature, China), and Noriko Sakamoto (Japan for Sustainability)

16:45-17:30 Final Discussion

Chair: Jennifer Turner and Kenji Otsuka

17:30-17:45: Concluding Remarks and Closing

Kenji Otsuka and Jennifer Turner

Speakers, Discussants and Study Tour Group Members:

Linda Sheehan, California Coastkeeper Alliance, California, US

Noah Hall, Wayne State University, Michigan, US

Jennifer Turner, Woodrow Wilson Center, Washington, DC, US

Peter Marsters, Woodrow Wilson Center, Washington, DC, US

Xuequn Jiang, Environmental Protection Bureau, Yixing Economic Development Zone,
Jiangsu Province, China

Junzhi Wang, Jiangsu Friends of Nature, China

Liping Ran, Green Camel Bell, Gansu Province, China

Shi Wang, School of the Environment, Nanjing University, China

Laijuan Shan, Center for Environment Management and Planning, Nanjing University,
China

Masahisa Nakamura, Research Center for Sustainability and Environment, Shiga
University, Japan

Osamu, Fujiki, Japan Institute of Wastewater Engineering Technology

Noriko Sakamoto, Japan for Sustainability

Yayoi Isono, Tokyo Keizai University, Japan

Mizuochi, Motoyuki, National Institute for Environmental Studies, Japan

Kaori Fujita, Kinki University, Japan

Kenji Otsuka, Institute of Developing Economies, Japan

Nanae Yamada, Institute of Developing Economies, Japan

IV. Workshop in Suwa, Japan (December 12, 2010)

Workshop on Lake Basin Governance: Toward Environmental Restoration of Lake Tai and Lake Suwa

Date: December 12, 2010

Place: Convention Hall in Hamanoyu Hotel, Suwa City, Japan

Languages: English, Japanese, and Chinese

10:30-12:30

Part I: Keynote Speeches

Chair: Takayuki Hanazato, Professor, Shinshu University

Lake Basin Governance: Toward Environmental Restoration of Lake Suwa

Tokio Okino, Lake Suwa Club

Water Environment Conservation and Stakeholder Participation in China:

Challenges in the Lake Tai Basin

Shi Wang, Nanjing University

The Role of Waterkeepers in Advancing Healthy Waterways

Linda Sheehan, California Coastkeeper Alliance

The Great Lakes

Noah Hall, Wayne State University Law School

14:00-17:30

Part II: Speeches from Local Groups

Chair: Tokio Okino, Lake Suwa Club

1. From Administrative Officers

Yukio Hirasawa, Former Director of Suwa Construction Office of Nagano Prefecture

Masayoshi Kitahara, Former Director of Suwa Construction Office of Nagano Prefecture

2. From Residents

Mitsuko Yajima, President of International Soroptimist Suwa

Atsushi Takiwaki, President of Shimo-suwa Liaison Association on Lake Suwa Cleanup Promotion

Masaki Nagasaki, President of Lake Suwa Rotary Club

Shun Shiohara, President of Environmental Council Suwa

Shigeru Kobayashi, JALT Japan Foreign Language Teachers Association Nagano Prefecture Branch Office

Izumi Iwashita, President of Cleanup and Recycle Chino

3. From Business Sectors

Ikuo Fujimori, Vice-Chairman of Suwa Association of International Exchange

Tsuneaki Fujimori, Former Director of a Metalizing Plating Factory

Takahisa Tanaka, Director of Environmental Promotion Division, EPSON

Study Tour Group Members:

Linda Sheehan, California Coastkeeper Alliance, California, US

Noah Hall, Wayne State University, Michigan, US

Jennifer Turner, Woodrow Wilson Center, Washington, DC, US

Peter Marsters, Woodrow Wilson Center, Washington, DC, US

Xuequn Jiang, Environmental Protection Bureau, Yixing Economic Development Zone, Jiangsu Province, China

Junzhi Wang, Jiangsu Friends of Nature, China

Liping Ran, Green Camel Bell, Gansu Province, China

Shi Wang, School of the Environment, Nanjing University, China

Laijuan Shan, Center for Environment Management and Planning, Nanjing University, China

Yayoi Isono, Tokyo Keizai University, Japan

Mizuochi, Motoyuki, National Institute for Environmental Studies, Japan

Kaori Fujita, Kinki University, Japan

Kenji Otsuka, Institute of Developing Economies, Japan

Nanae Yamada, Institute of Developing Economies, Japan